Guidelines on Documentation and Submission of Theses and Dissertations

1. INTRODUCTION

A dissertation is an essay advancing a new point of view resulting from research as a requirement for a Masters or other advanced academic degree. A thesis is a dissertation advancing an original point of view as a result of research, as a requirement for an MPhil or a PhD degree.

All postgraduate students at the University of Moratuwa should follow the under mentioned instructions before preparation of their higher degree theses and dissertations.

Undergraduate students, who are required to submit a dissertation, should also follow these guidelines.

The final copies of the theses/dissertations will not be accepted if the students have not prepared the theses/dissertations according to these guidelines.

2. Common Instructions

01. No of Copies

Student must submit Three (03) printed copies¹ and Three (03) soft copies in CD/DVD format of the theses to the Director of Postgraduate Studies for PhD, MSc. & Mphil. Students and dissertations to the Head of the Department for Taught Courses.

Lower case Roman numerals should be assigned centered at the bottom of the page to all "preliminary pages" (Refer Appendix II; i - ix in content page). Pagination of the body text and appendices is to be in Arabic numerals centered at the bottom of the page. The pagination begins with the first page of the first chapter and continues throughout the rest of the text.

04. Tables and Illustrations

Tables are grids consisting of columns and rows that present numerical or verbal facts by categories. Figures include charts, graphs, diagrams, photographs, maps, musical examples, drawings and other images. All these types of nontextural material are collectively referred to as illustrations. All tables and figures must be referred to in the text by number (not by a phrase such as "the following table"). Charts, graphs, maps, and tables that are larger than the standard page should be attached as Appendices. Tables and illustrations should be centered (See figure 1 and table 1).
